

Rewrites of Sonic #16-24

Story 1: Sonic Virtual (Formerly "Sonic Under Glass") Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

Metal Sonic had knocked Sonic unconscious and placed him in a virtual reality tube. The tube made a virtual nightmare of the Mobius of the Sky destroyed. Old Man Owl witnessed the capture and reported back to Sally and Tails in Mobotropolis. Sally said, "Oh my gosh! We have to save Sonic!" Tails flew Sally to where Sonic was (Old Man Owl led the way). Sally fought off Metal's attacks while Old Man and Tails struggled to get Sonic out!

Once Sonic was freed, he finished Metal and sent him back to Robotropolis. Sonic told his friends what he had seen, and that he will do his best to prevent that nightmare from becoming real!

Story 2: Sonic Spy (Formerly "The Man From HEDGEHOG") Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

Harvey Who, a young owl friend of Old Man Owl, notifies Sonic and Sally of Eggman's latest plan- a Battle Jet that would attack the Mobius of the Sky! Sally stayed behind to give advice when needed, while Old Man decided to stick close to Sonic to aid in any way possible. Old Man Owl distracted the Badniks with a goofy dance, while Sonic sneaked around to place some explosive devices on the jet.

But Eggman was well aware of the hedgehog's intentions, and activated the jet to attack! Sonic jumped on the jet as it flew to the sky. Sonic dodged the bullets and other weapons as he tried to find out how to destroy the jet. Sally contacted Sonic, saying, "Try smashing into the cockpit!" Sonic did so, and the jet shorted out. Old Man Owl escaped as Sonic smashed the jet. The two returned to Mobotropolis to report their progress.

Story 3: Sonic vs. Gong (Formerly "Gorilla Warfare") Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

Eggman had captured a young orangutan and transformed him into a Super Badnik known as King Gong! Then he sent it to attack the Mobius of the Sky. When it invaded Mobotropolis, it captured Princess Sally. Prince Elias tried to take it down, but Gong's "Sound Blast" knocked him down. Queen Alicia saw this and sent a distress signal to Sonic and Tails. Sonic rode on the wings of the Tornado as Tails piloted it to the scene of the action!

Sonic made a Sonic Spin on King Gong's hand, freeing Sally. Then Sonic made a Spin going down from Gong's head down to its feet. Gong exploded, freeing the young orangutan. The orangutan thanked Sonic for setting him free, and made himself an ally to Mobotropolis to further prove his gratitude!

Story 4: Love in Mobotropolis
(Formerly "Wedding Bell Blues")
Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

Sonic and Sally were reading a play script and practicing their lines for a romance play to be performed in Mobotropolis. Coconuts eavesdropped on the two and thought that they really were getting married (they would be in the future, but not at this time). Coconuts reported back to Eggman, who saw this as a perfect opportunity to attack them. He sent Metal Sonic to attack the two lovers.

At the scene in the play where the supposed "nuptials" were taking place, Metal and some Badniks attacked! Sonic and Sally knew that reasoning with them would not work, so they had to fight. They freed some people and animals from the robot shells (as they always did when fighting Badniks) and drove away Metal Sonic. They then finally completed the play (Sally looked so cute in the photo when she was holding the bouquet of flowers in the closing curtain!).

Story 5: Wave of Blue
(Formerly "Night of a Thousand Sonics")
Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

The Evil Sonic of the reverse universe came to see the Eggman of the normal universe. Eggman devised a scheme where Evil Sonic and Metal Sonic would go to the other seemingly numberless Sonic universes and steal the Chaos Emeralds from them. Agreeing to the task, they set out. Sonic, Tails, Sally, and other people in the Mobius of the Sky felt the tremor and decided to find out what was up. King Max, Sally's father, explained, "Queen Alicia and I have seen Eggman send Metal Sonic and an evil counterpart of our Sonic steal Chaos Emeralds from other alternate universes. They must be stopped!"

"Got it!" they said as they set out to find the Sonics from the other universes! Metal Sonic and Evil Sonic used some of them to power up to stronger forms! But the army of blue hedgehogs soon beat the team. While Evil Sonic retreated to his universe, Metal retreated to Robotropolis back in the Mobius of Darkness. The people celebrated back in the Mobius of the Sky.

Story 6: Is Sonic Really Gone?
(Formerly "That's the Spirit")
Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

Sonic and Sally again fought Metal Sonic in the Mobius of Darkness. But then, Metal used a strange laser that hit Sonic. Though it had seemed that Sonic was destroyed for good, he soon found that he was invisible. He learned that when he went to Robotropolis and heard Eggman shout at Metal for using an invisibility ray instead of a death ray. Sally, who was spying on Eggman despite her sadness, soon was cheered up somewhat from that as well.

Sonic and Sally, who was able to hear Sonic's voice, decided to take advantage of this. Eggman sent out some Condorbot Badniks to attack Mobotropolis. Sonic blasted some of the bird robots, freeing the birds inside, before becoming visible again!

Story 7: EVE: The Evolving Robot
(Formerly "3 Phases of EVE")
Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

Eggman created a shape-shifting robot known as EVE. He sent her to cause havoc in the Mobius of the Sky. Sally told Sonic that EVE was attacking Mobotropolis. He raced up with Tails to attack it. EVE was in the form of a dangerous scorpion. Sonic hit it until it melted. Sonic decided to prepare to go to Robotropolis in the Mobius of Darkness. But when he and Tails got back to their retreat, EVE attacked again... this time in the form of a giant eagle. Sonic fought it off again, and then he and his friend traveled to the Mobius of Darkness.

They soon made it to Robotropolis. Eggman and Metal Sonic awaited them, and so did EVE... in the form of a dragon! Sonic had more trouble with this form than the previous two, but he soon triumphed, and EVE showed her true form... something similar to a jellyfish. She zapped Eggman to one of the Warp Zones. Metal retreated to see if his master was still alive or not. Sonic and Tails prepared to return to the Mobius of the Sky.

Story 8: The Bad Egg is Back!
(Formerly "The Return")
Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

Last time, a renegade robot named EVE sent Eggman to another universe. Metal Sonic traveled through the various warp zones and eventually found his master and returned him home. Eggman planned his next move- he would send another army of Badniks to Mobotropolis and destroy it completely! Antoine saw this and reported to the Princess. Sally said, "No! I must call for Sonic immediately!" At that, she sent a SOS to Sonic's Retreat. Sonic and Tails got the message and got their plane ready.

Soon, Sonic saw what had happened. Sonic battled the Badniks (freeing more captives from within) and eventually sent Metal Sonic back to Robotropolis. The people now knew that Eggman was back, and angry as a hornet!

The End... for now!

Story 9: Eggman to the Rescue
(Formerly "Ivo Robotnik, Freedom Fighter")
Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

Eggman was working on his giant Metal Eggman robot suit, when one of his Badniks accidentally put in some faulty programming, causing it to go out of control! It got loose and is starting to attack both the Mobius of the Sky and the Mobius of Darkness! Eggman had to warn them, and Metal Sonic went to accompany him. Old Man Owl sent the message (in his own bumbling way) to Sonic. Though slightly skeptical at first, Sonic knew that the safety of Mobius counted on him.

After Eggman told what had happened, Sonic reluctantly took the task. Eggman told Sonic and Tails to keep Metal Eggman busy while he worked on a means to shut him down. Sonic and Tails went out and hit him with their spins. Though they only put dents in him, they were enough to buy time. Eggman finally fixed a remote control... that he used to deactivate Metal Eggman. Eggman and Metal Sonic returned to the Mobius of Darkness. They knew that both sides won a battle today!

Story 10: Who Framed Sonic?
(Formerly "When Hedgehogs Collide")
Fan Fiction by Danny Wheeler

One of the guardsmen went to Sonic's Retreat and took him to Mobotropolis on South Island. He had been accused of attacking the King. Sonic then related to him of the one time that he met his evil counterpart for the first time. Sally also knew of this, and wished to help prove Sonic's innocence. Sonic stayed at the palace (so the king can keep his eye on him), while Sally sought out Evil Sonic (with the help of Bunnie).

Sally and Bunnie soon found Evil Sonic running amok. Bunnie put on her cyborg armor and, using her strength and magic, helped Sally fight. Soon, Evil Sonic was escorted to the king. The real Sonic was freed, but just when he was about to put Evil Sonic in jail, Evil Sonic used a dark ring to teleport out. The people knew they would see him again!
